

Polio Foundation Gets Reports Of Victims Quickly, Acts Fast

By VIOLA KLUG
FR 5-5923

Did you know that 24 hours after a polio case has been reported to the Health Department, the report is in the hands of the Foundation? That the Foundation then contacts the family, offering assistance? That the Foundation spends thousands of dollars on one patient, if needed? That it will take at least five years, before there will be enough vaccine for every child? So we need your contributions more than ever if we are to obliterate this disease. If you are planning to be out on Tuesday evening, Jan. 31, between 7 and 9 p.m. when the Mothers march, won't you please arrange to leave your contribution?

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Calderon, 22727 Susana Ave., on the birth of another daughter, Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 1:30 a.m. at Gardena Hospital. Welcoming her home are Paul, Stephen, and Mona. The maternal grandfather is Joseph Vargas, and the paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Calderon, of Stockton.

The Green Thumbers Garden Club held its monthly meeting Thursday evening at the home of Josephine Fitzgerald, 5615 Rockview Dr., with President Betty Fitzgerald presiding.

A short business meeting was held, and then Harley Yunt of Swift and Co. gave an interesting talk, illustrated with movies, on garden pests, followed by a question and answer period. Five prizes were donated by the speaker and were won by Maud Volgamott, Martha Knight, Pat Rahn, Sue Burt, and Barbara Kosick. Present were Betty Fitzgerald, Josephine Fitzgerald, Maud Volgamott, Mae Zemet, Florence Barrow, Viola Klug, Bess Sellmeyer, Valerie Elliott, Dorothy Soils, Dolly Matogarin, Martha Kelleck, Martha Knight, Peggy Viskocil, Paula Huback, Marjorie Dirreen, Pat Rahn, Evelyn Horton, and Ida Handley. Four guests, Sue Burt, president, and Jodie Adkins, vice president of the Beau Jardin Club, Aileen Sheppard, and Barbara Kosick.

We are glad to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Al Kosick and little Sue Ann, who arrived here Monday, Jan. 9, from St. Catharines, Ontario, Can., and are now visiting her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. David Sheppard, 5620 Rockview Dr.

Dorothy Soils, 22723 Linda Dr., entertained some of her old neighbors with a luncheon Thursday, Jan. 19. Present were Valerie Elliott, Bess Sellmeyer, Betty Fitzgerald, Evelyn Horton, Peggy Viskocil, Martha Knight, Pat Rahn, and Ida Handley. Following the luncheon, they settled down to a long gab fest.

Our best wishes for success go to Albert Yackie, 5602 Palos Verdes Blvd., on the opening of an automobile sales and service store at 236 W. Manchester.

On Sunday, Jan. 15, at 2:30, Gertrude Lumsden, 5238 Binde-wald Dr., held a recital of piano and voice, at the Women's Clubhouse at Redondo Beach. Among the pupils taking part from this area were Rosemary McClure, Candy McDonald, Bruce Shockney, Sidney Spark, Ralph Marsh Jr., Craig Robinson, Kathy Sanders, and a duo piano number by Gay Hurst and Christopher Edman. We hear that the youngsters did remarkably well.

More on Kay Welliver's fifteenth birthday celebration, Sunday, Jan. 15. Her folks took her to Rudi's for a spaghetti dinner and then to a show.

Mrs. Walter Wudzkey, 4706 Ave. C, held a luncheon Wednesday, Jan. 18, in honor of Mrs. Frankie Zink of Chicago. Other guests were Mmes. Earl Welliver and P. L. McMichael. The afternoon was spent in playing Samba. In the evening, she entertained Mr. and Mrs. LaMar Zink, Mrs. Frankie Zink, Kay Welliver, and Norman

Ancient Elks To Be Feted

Torrance Lodge 1948, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will honor the old-timers in Elkdom here next Wednesday evening, Feb. 1, it was announced yesterday by Joe Yates, exalted ruler.

Officer stations in the lodge will be occupied that evening by Elks with 10 or more years membership. Yates said. He indicated that the evening would be strictly one of fun and hilarity.

All Elks are being urged by the officers to be present for the fête to old-timers and that all old time Elks are being particularly invited to attend the meeting.

Schultz, of Park Ridge, Ill. The evening was spent in playing canasta. It happened to be Mrs. Wudzkey's birthday.

The annual congregational meeting of the Seaside Community E. and R. Church, 230th St. and Ocean Ave., will be held Sunday, Jan. 29, at 7:30 p.m. There will be reports for the year. Following the meeting there will be a fellowship period with refreshments provided by the consistory. All members are requested to be present.

On Sunday, Jan. 22, a group of nine young people from Seaside Community E. and R.

church attended a youth rally of the Congregational Christian and E. and R. young people at Morningside Church, at 88th and Crenshaw. Those who attended were Darlene Dougherty, Patricia Dunham, Milton Eddy, Donna and Shirley Graham, Richard Miller, Carol and Kay Welliver, and Terry Yackie.

The rally was in the afternoon and evening. There was a recreational period, panel discussions and an address by Rev. Henry R. Rust of the Hillcrest Congregational Church. This was followed by a supper, fellowship hour, entertainment and a closing worship service. Rev. Rust is the secretary of youth work in the Congregation Christian Churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Martin, 5307 Reese Rd., with two other couples attended a farewell party, for Marshall Roe of Rolling Hills, who is leaving for a tour of Air Base in Europe. The affair was held at the Officer's Club at Terminal Island Saturday evening.

Mrs. E. W. Adkins, 23308 Warmside Ave., Den Mother of Den 2, Troop 960, entertained her Cub Scouts at her home Saturday afternoon with a wienie roast. They received their Scout knives for selling the most mistletoe. Among those taking part were Chris Akers, Michael Fogarty, Patrick Fogarty, Rory McHale, Timothy Speaks, Daniel Waldhoff, and Phillip Adkins.

The United Church Women of Southern California-Southern Nevada gathered for their 22nd annual meeting at the Hollywood Methodist Church last Friday, Mrs. David D. Baker of New York, editor of the "Church Woman" publication of the United Council, was the speaker, relating her experiences with the Fellowship Team which visited the Christian women in 13 countries.

Mrs. Richard A. Miller, of Seaside Community Evangelical and Reformed Church, 230th
